Junior faculty with a current NIH Career Development Award (K series) or similar Post-doctoral fellows Foreign post-doctoral fellows from 25 participating international sites in Lower-Middle Income Countries Senior professional students (MD, DDS, DVM, PharmD, etc.) in health-related disciplines (human or animal) such as medicine, nursing, dentistry, optometry, etc. Advanced doctoral students (PhD, DrPH, etc.) in fields such as health sciences, social and behavioral sciences, nutrition, environment, etc.

The University of California Global Health Institute (UCGHI) GloCal Health Fellowship is a career development fellowship sponsored by the Fogarty International Center (FIC). The consortium comprises four University of California campuses: UC San Francisco, UC San Diego, UC Los Angeles, UC Davis, and 25 affiliated international sites across 14 countries. This 11-month, mentored research fellowship program provides trainees with outstanding, interdisciplinary education and training in innovative global health research designed to improve health for populations around the world. Trainees are matched with top-tier global health faculty program mentors, thus engaging in rich and enduring, mentored research experiences that will foster scientific and career development in global health research.

For more information on GloCal please visit: glocalfellows.org
For more information about UCGHI please visit: ucghi.universityofcalifornia.edu

SUPPORT INCLUDES:

- Stipend*
- Travel
- Mentorship
- On-line courses
- Health Insurance
- Research support up to $20,000 ($50,000 for junior faculty)

*Not applicable for junior faculty
2013 GloCal Health Fellowship
Call for Applications
Deadline: December 3, 2012

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

The UCGHI GloCal Health Fellowship Steering Committee invites you to apply for the 2013-2014 GloCal Fellowship, an 11-month, mentored research fellowship program that provides its trainees with outstanding, interdisciplinary education and training opportunities designed to improve the health conditions of populations around the world.

The GloCal Health Fellowship provides each awardee with:

- Stipend support for 11 consecutive months at an international field site
- Health insurance
- Modest research training costs (up to $20,000 for students and postdocs, $50,000 for junior faculty)
- Travel costs to international field site
- Tuition support for 2-3 online courses
- 5-day orientation on the campus of the National Institutes of Health

Please consider applying if you are a:

- US postdoctoral fellow
- Foreign postdoctoral fellow, at one of our 25 participating international sites
- Senior professional student (MD, DDS, DVM, etc.)
- Advanced doctoral student (PhD, DrPH, etc.)
- Junior faculty member with current NIH funding (K series or similar)

For more information on GloCal please visit: glocalfellows.org
For more information about UCGHI please visit: ucghi.universityofcalifornia.edu